Policy

This policy covers employee travel constraints during Covid-19.

It is the policy of Mid-Missouri Supported Living, LLC, to protect individuals supported and employees from exposure to Covid-19.

Employees that travel in any area labeled as high-risk, which is Level 3 and above, as described by the CDC, are subject to the following constraints upon return to their position:

- Employees must quarantine for at least seven calendar days.
- Employees must have no symptoms for at least seven calendar days.
- It is recommended employees be tested for Covid-19 if coming back from a high-risk area (Level 3 and above).
- Employee will not be paid for travel or quarantine unless they have ETO.
